To Whom It May Concern:

The Home Depot and Stratix Corporation have built a strong collaborative relationship over the last eighteen years. Stratix has partnered with The Home Depot to provide products, services and application development throughout The Home Depot environment.

Always bringing innovation, professionalism, and value to every project, Stratix continues to deliver value based solutions and results. Their knowledge and experience, as well as, their ability to engage with all business partners have been some of the most successful capabilities they bring to the table.

The Home Depot is committed to delivering world class solutions to our Support Center and our Stores, and with our partnership with Stratix we will continue to excel. We value our relationship with Stratix, and I am confident that as you look at what Stratix can provide, you will too.

Sincerely,
